

Demonstration Contest for 4th & 5th Graders

Teach your class how to do something you love!

Rules:

- You must give your demonstration by yourself.
- You may only participate in one demonstration.
- Animals and children may not be used in your demonstration.
- Remember to follow school rules while preparing your demonstration.

REMEMBER: Your demonstration MUST relate to a 4-H project area.

Time limit: 3-5 minutes

4-H Project Areas

Beef	Computers & Technology	Horticulture & Garden
Dairy	Communications/Public Spkg	Leadership
Goat	Consumer Education	Nutrition, Health & Fitness
Horse	Creative Arts & Design	Outdoor Recreation &
Poultry	Electric	Shooting Sports
Sheep	Engineering & Safety Science	Performing Arts & Recreation
Swine	Entomology & Beekeeping	Personal Development
Citizenship	Entrepreneurship	Photography
Clothing & Textiles	Food Science	Plant Science
Companion Animal	Forestry, Wildlife, & Fisheries	Veterinary Science

Helpful Hints:

- A demonstration should include visual aids.
Examples - Tri-Fold Boards, Ingredients, Equipment, Photos, etc.
- Make sure your audience can see you and your visual aids.
- Be very specific when explaining each step of your demonstration.
- Include both an introduction and a conclusion in your presentation.
- Show your finished product.
- Practice!

You will be judged on the following criteria:

A. Demonstrator (15)
1. Appearance – neat, well groomed	5
2. Voice – pleasing, clear, distinct	5
3. Shows poise and enthusiasm	5
B. Presentation (50)
1. Introduction – attention getting, purpose	10
2. Main points are clearly stated	10
3. Summary – interesting, short but complete	10
4. Demonstration given convincingly	5
5. Equipment and/or visuals	10
6. Work area left neat.	5
C. Subject matter (35)
1. Well organized and selected	10
2. Source of information accurate	15
3. Practical question answered correctly	10

